Chorus:

C
There are two too many to's.
C F C

Webster wrote them to confuse you.
G
Too hard to remember which to use.
C
Here today and gone tomorrow.
C F C
It's about time we chose to lose two.
C G G
Let's refuse to use two of the to's.
C F
Number two betters one.
C G
It's a pair, one less than few.
F
Being alone is no fun.
The W means me and you.

Chorus:
Two-o too means also.
It's more than enough, too.
That's too much for me to know.
But not too good to be untrue.
Chorus:
Music:

The third to means all the rest.
I'm going to go to Timbuctoo.
To wear a tutu; to get dressed.
And to you I say toddle-oo.
